

IF ENGLISH IS NOT YOUR FIRST LANGUAGE, these programs and services can help you.....

On the Fairfax Campus

Seminar in Graduate-Level Writing for Non-Native Speakers of English (Fall/Spring/Summer)

A two-part program to help George Mason graduate students and visiting scholars become more effective writers. Each part meets three hours a week for six weeks. Space is limited and registration is required. Free.

Workshops (Fall/Spring/ Summer) Six-week series of workshops in grammar/pronunciation/conversation and culture . For all non-native speakers of English. No registration required. Free.

The English Conversation Program (Fall) - a program to help newly-arrived international students improve their spoken English. Free.

University Writing Center (Fall/Spring/Summer) Tutors trained in teaching English as a second language can help with every stage of the writing process. Free. For information, call the Writing Center at 703-993-1200 or visit <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu> or Robinson A 114.

Communication 150 (Fall/Spring) A 3-credit course that focuses on improving pronunciation and speaking skills. Regular George Mason tuition rates apply.

SPEAK Tests (Fall/Spring/Summer) George Mason graduate teaching assistants (GTAs) can schedule a SPEAK test. Free.

On the Arlington and Prince William Campuses

Individualized and Small-Group Instruction—

(Fall/Spring/Summer) Non-native speakers can get help on language-related issues from an ESL instructor. Instruction in listening, speaking, reading and/or writing is available. Free.

University Writing Center (Fall/Spring/Summer) Tutors trained in teaching English as a second language can help with every stage of the writing process. Free. For information, call the Writing Center at 703-993-1200 or visit <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu>

For more information on any of the above programs, contact
Melissa Allen at malle2@gmu.edu or 703-993-3642.

Sponsored by:
The English Language Institute
University Life

LIVING • LEARNING • LEADING