Dear Madam/Sir

This is to confirm that the Government of the United Arab Emirates (UAE) has granted the above mentioned student a scholarship for the above-mentioned academic terms. This sponsorship is managed and administrated by Abu Dhabi Police (ADP) Attaché with the following terms and conditions:

1. This financial guarantee provides funding coverage only to the degree and major specified above. Any changes in the student's assigned major, degree shall render this financial guarantee null and void.
2. It provides tuition funding to the sponsored fulltime-student mentioned above only.
3. The scholarship covers the full tuition and other relevant required academic fees.
4. Online/hybrid and other such courses _____ are not allowed and will not be covered under this financial guarantee.
5. The scholarship provides full and comprehensive health insurance (medical and dental) with no deductible to students and their families. Consequently, UAE Embassy/ ADP expect a waiver for any imposed additional school-sponsored health insurance charges.
6. Included in the coverage of this Financial Guarantee are the fees related to Transcripts fees.
7. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 Section 99.31(a) (4) permits educational institutions to release certain personally identifiable information for financial aid purposes. Section 99.31(a) (4) states that "an educational agency or institution may disclose personally identifiable information from an educational record of a student without the consent required by Section 99.31 if the disclosure is in connection with financial aid for which the student has applied and for which the student has received."

This stipulates that the financial aid provided by the Government of the United Arab Emirates (UAE), permits the registrar office of the school to send an official copy of the student's registrations, transcripts, enrollment letters and method of instruction letters to our office at the beginning and end of each academic term.

For any academic questions or inquiries, please correspond with the student's advisor
