Funding

The university is required to review your financial documentation prior to issuing an I-20. You must document sufficient funds available for your first year's academic and living expenses and assured sources of support for subsequent years. You are responsible for all payments to the university in accordance with the tuition/fee schedule in effect at the time of your enrollment for each semester of your attendance. The amounts shown on this form and on your I-20 are estimates only. Your academic costs may vary depending on your program of study, the number of credits for which you enroll, and the date you commence study. Your living expenses may vary depending on your housing and lifestyle choices. All costs are subject to change.

The estimated costs for the 2020-21 academic year (9 months) ¹

	Undergraduate	Graduate (18 credits) ²
Tuition and Fees	38,124
Living Expenses (room, board, transportation, and personal expenses)	$17,628	$21,648
Required Medical Insurance	$3,000	$3,000
Estimated Total Costs	$58,752	Varies by program ³

¹ If you plan to live in the United States for the full year (12 months), please plan for 33 percent higher living expenses.

² Students in F-1 status are required to enroll full time during each fall and spring semester but are not required to enroll for summer. The tuition costs shown are based on minimum enrollment for nine months (fall/spring) of study and do not include summer tuition. Living expenses are shown for 9 months.

³ Tuition figures listed are estimates and are subject to change. Tuition rates are set annually in late spring for the following academic year. Some programs may charge tuition at a higher rate. We reserve the right to request additional documentation if necessary prior to issuing your I-20 form. The latest tuition rates, listed by program, can be found at studentaccounts.gmu.edu/tuition-fees.

Note: Tuition may vary for graduate students holding assistantships. Stipends and benefits are determined by each academic department. You may use your stipend as partial proof of financial support. Please refer to your offer letter for award details and include a copy of the letter with this form.

Sources of Funding

You must document your sources of funding for the full term of your study at George Mason University. The funds for the first year must be guaranteed, either currently on deposit or documented in a scholarship letter if you are a sponsored student. Funds for the subsequent years must be committed by your sponsor or scholarship source. If you are relying solely on your own personal funds, you must show funding on deposit for the full term of your study. Bank statements may include checking or savings accounts, certificates of deposit, or money market accounts. We do not accept real property, corporate assets, or salary letters. Send current (within the previous 6 months) original bank statements and/or letters of support, including the appropriate signatures of the issuing authority. If the source(s) of your support will change after the first year, please explain on a separate sheet. Your handwritten signature is required below.
