Curricular Practical Training Application Form

Definition
Curricular Practical Training (CPT) must be an integral part of an established curriculum and directly related to the student’s major area of study. [8CFR 214.2(f)(10)(i)] It is authorization to participate temporarily in an internship, the co-operative education program or required thesis/dissertation project. Follow the instructions below based on the option you choose.

Before You Start, Have You...
- Completed a year, continuously enrolled as a degree student in F1 status, and completed one academic term in your degree program at George Mason?
- Earned a minimum GPA of 3.0 (Graduate Students) or 2.0 (Undergraduate Students) or 2.33 (Juris Doctor Students)? (Exceptions may be considered during summer break only. Speak with an advisor to learn if you are eligible.)

ACADEMIC INFORMATION: Completed by Academic Advisor, Department Head or Dean

CPT is authorization to participate in temporary training that is an integral part of an established curriculum and directly related to the student’s major area of study. It is not meant to facilitate the creation of employment opportunities for F1 students. We ask that you help us determine whether the proposed training meets government guidelines for CPT by reviewing the detailed position description, and the student’s list of relevant courses.

Estimated Graduation (Term/Year) ___________________________ Major ___________________________

Advisors of graduate students: Has the student completed his/her required coursework? ☐ Yes ☐ No

☐ If YES: If the student is applying for Thesis/Dissertation CPT, the training must be required to complete the thesis or dissertation.
☐ Note that if the training is OPTIONAL, then the student is not eligible for CPT but may meet the eligibility requirements for Optional Practical Training. An OIPS advisor can provide details.
☐ The work is required to complete the thesis/dissertation.
☐ I have attached a letter which explains in detail how the research will be used in the thesis or dissertation.

I have read the detailed position description and the student’s list of relevant courses. I confirm that this Curricular Practical Training opportunity is integral to or required for the student’s program of study. It will not delay the student’s expected completion date as listed on the I-20.
