Dear Exchange Visitor Student,

We are glad to welcome you to our Exchange Visitor Program at George Mason University! The Exchange Visitor Program, also known now as BridgeUSA, operates under the auspices of the U.S. Department of State’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. Its purpose is to provide you with an opportunity to participate in an educational and cultural program in the United States, return home to share your experiences, and encourage Americans to participate in educational and cultural programs abroad. Exchange Visitors enter the United States on a J visa. Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) regulates Foreign Relations. Part 62 regulates the Exchange Visitor Program. As a designated sponsor, GMU complies with regulations and compliance administration outlined in 22 CFR Part 62. As a participant, you are expected to comply with 22 CFR Part 62. As the Alternate Responsible Officer for GMU’s exchange visitor students, I am writing to provide information that you will need to prepare for your trip to the U.S.

For the Fall 2022 semesters, GMU plans to have in-person, hybrid (partially in-person and partially online), and fully online classes. Currently, new Exchange Visitor students cannot have the majority of their classes be fully online. Please note that government guidance and GMU policies may change before the start of classes or during your program. Prior to March 2020, undergraduate students were not allowed to have a fully online course for their first 12 credits. Please review the details about air travel to the U.S. on the Center for Disease Control’s website: www.cdc.gov and the OIPS website.

Orientation and Arrival at George Mason

As part of your orientation, I will also host a required J-1 student compliance session. The orientation will be partially in person and partially online. More information on the Fall orientation is located here: https://oips.gmu.edu/attend-orientation/ Once you have arrived in the United States, you must have your SEVIS record validated through the J-1 online check-in process on the OIPS website. For the check-in process, you will also need to know your G #, your local address, U.S. phone number (if applicable) and emergency contact information. You should plan to complete the J-1 check-in form as soon as possible after arrival, but no later than August 23rd. More details will be emailed before your arrival. I wish you safe travels to the USA!

Christine A. Bodziak
International Advisor
CCIEE will work with you to obtain a visa appointment.

Steps to Obtain a U.S. Visa

Bring to your Visa Interview

- Your GMU acceptance letter
- Your OIPS welcome letter that confirms you will be taking some or all of your classes in person
- Proof of funding documents
- Printed copies of your DS-160 confirmation page, your DS-160/visa (MRV) fee receipt and your I-901 SEVIS fee receipt
- Your original DS-2019 Form

You can check with CCIEE and the consulate’s website if any additional documents are needed.

Be prepared, honest, polite, and confident when presenting yourself to the consular officer during your visa interview. They may ask what you plan to study, why you selected Mason, and what your plans are after your program. You may be asked to show your admission letter from GMU, proof of financial support, proof of strong ties to your home country, etc. The consular officer will review whether you have sufficient funds to cover expenses and confirm your non-immigrant intent. Consular officers have the sole authority to either grant the visa or refuse the visa.

Please note that there is a chance refused applications may be flagged for administrative processing if the consular officer determined they did not have adequate information to verify if you are eligible for a visa. Please notify your J-1 advisor immediately if your application was flagged for administrative processing so we can advise you on next steps.
Since the start of the pandemic, multiple announcements from U.S. government agencies have impacted exchange programs, international students, and travelers from certain regions to the United States. Although we can offer some guidance now, some other entity may interpret a specific announcement in such a way that prevents you from traveling and entering the United States. COVID vaccinations and a negative COVID test are required for entry to the U.S. More details and links to relevant guidance is on the OIPS website. Additional government guidance may also be issued before your arrival that can impact your travel.

As a J-1 student, you can enter the United States up to 30 days before the program start date indicated on your DS-2019 form. Also, you have a grace period that allows you to stay in the U.S. for up to 30 days from the program end date on your DS-2019 form before departing the U.S. Please pay attention to your housing move in and move-out dates as they differ from J-1 student regulations regarding entry and departure.

Your visa permits you to travel to a U.S. Port of Entry. For most travelers, this is an international airport in the U.S. where you present yourself to the Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer after disembarking from your flight. You will present certain documents and may be asked to show supporting documents. Be prepared, honest, polite, and confident when presenting yourself to CBP officials. Place these important items in your carry-on luggage during your flight so that they are readily available:

- Your passport with valid visa
- Your original DS-2019 form
- Your admission letter
- Your OIPS welcome letter that confirms that you will be enrolled in hybrid or in-person classes
- A print out of your classes from Patriot Web
- Your proof of funding documents
- Emergency contact information both in the United States (if applicable) and in your home country
- Proof of COVID vaccine and negative test results per the CDC guidelines
- OIPS contact information
- The address where you will be staying

Present your passport, original DS-2019 form and entry visa to the immigration official at the U.S. port of entry. They may ask questions that will require you to show some of your supporting documents. If they have additional questions, they may direct you to a secondary inspection site.

Almost everything in the United States can be paid using a credit card, so you should have one with you when you arrive. You will use it for your living expenses and might need it in an emergency. Do not carry a large amount of cash with you. If you must enter the U.S. with cash, we encourage you to use traveler’s checks, which are more secure and can be replaced if lost.

Please follow the link to explore your transportation options from Virginia airports: http://transportation.gmu.edu/airportservices.html
ARRIVAL AND ORIENTATION

The Office of International Programs and Services will host a virtual and in person orientation program. More information is located here: https://oips.gmu.edu/attend-orientation/

Once you have arrived in the United States, OIPS will validate your SEVIS record to confirm that you have arrived and started your program. In order for us to do so, each J-1 student must complete the J-1 online check-in process on the OIPS website. For the check-in process, you will need to know your G#, your local address, U.S. phone number (if applicable) and emergency contact information. You should plan to complete the J-1 check-in form as soon as possible after arrival, but no later than January 31st. You can only complete the check-in form AFTER arriving in the U.S. as you need to upload your most recent I-94 record. Please follow this link to start the check-in form:
https://oips.gmu.edu/international-student-check-in-form-for-j-1-students/

What is an I-94 Record?

The I-94 record is the “Arrival/Departure Record” issued by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) whenever you enter the United States. This record confirms that you have been legally admitted to the U.S. in a specific visa status, and for a specific duration of time. For F and J visa holders the amount of time is indicated by the notation “D/S” which means you can be in the U.S. for the Duration of Status of your student program. The CBP officers will enter the I-94 data into an on-line registration system using your passport and visa stamp. You will be able to access an electronic version of the I-94 record by visiting: https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/I94/#/home This record can be printed when applying for immigration benefits, such as a driver’s license or a Social Security Number (SSN).
Currently, newly arriving China 121 students are required to live on-campus. You can find additional information about on campus housing options and rates at housing.gmu.edu

You can also read some tips from students about on campus housing on the OIPS website at: https://oips.gmu.edu/housing/
HEALTH INSURANCE

Exchange Visitors and their dependents must maintain health insurance for the entire period of J status in the United States. U.S. regulations require the following:

1. Medical benefits of at least $100,000 U.S. per accident or illness
2. Repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,000 U.S.
3. Expenses associated with medical evacuation of the Exchange Visitor to his or her home country in the amount of $50,000 U.S.
4. A deductible not to exceed $500 per accident or illness

The George Mason University Health Insurance plan is offered by Aetna Student Health. It meets and exceeds the requirements. Along with your DS-2019, you will receive an International Student Welcome letter from the Student Health Insurance office explaining that international students are automatically enrolled in the health plan and the international student premium is due by the first day of classes. Per regulation 22 CFR 62.14(i) a willful failure to maintain health insurance will result in termination from the exchange program. Sponsored students who receive scholarships that cover the insurance fees must work with the Third Party Billing Office in Students Accounts to ensure they have a copy of your sponsorship letter. Sponsored students must follow up with their government sponsor to confirm that invoices are received and are in process.

You can find more information about the plan and how to access your health insurance benefits at: https://shs.gmu.edu/insurance/resources/

IMPORTANT NOTE: Please review the plan dates when considering your health insurance coverage. J-1 students arriving before the start of their Aetna Student Health coverage may want to purchase supplemental insurance coverage until the health plan start date. Once your program starts, there cannot be any breaks or lapses in insurance coverage even if one travels outside the U.S for an extended period of time during the J program.

THE COST OF U.S. HEALTH CARE

Your health insurance may not cover the full cost of your doctor’s visit, hospitalization or medication. Review the rules related to your plan to understand fully what is covered. Here are some of the terms defined:

Premium

The amount you pay to your insurance company for your insurance policy. This is paid on a monthly or a yearly basis, depending on your insurance plan.

Co-Pay

The co-pay or co-payment, is the amount you are expected to pay directly to the healthcare provider at the time you receive medical treatment. This is usually a small amount and varies depending on your insurance.
Deductible

The deductible is a part of the medical bill that you are expected to pay in addition to the co-pay. Insurance plans usually specify the amount of a medical bill they cover and the amount you must pay. The deductible is usually described as a flat amount or as a percentage, depending upon the policy. Generally high premiums have a lower deductible while lower premiums have a high deductible.

In many cases, the doctor’s office or hospital where you seek treatment may not bill your insurance directly. They may require you to pay them directly and for you to be reimbursed by your health insurance company.

Information on the Possible Applicability of the Affordable Care Act

The general rules regarding applicability of the individual mandate of the ACA and availability of ACA-compliant coverage also apply to J nonimmigrants, but that the minimum levels and types of coverage are still required as a condition of J-1 or J-2 status, even if those nonimmigrants are additionally subject to the ACA's individual mandate. For more information please visit: https://shs.gmu.edu/insurance/resources/
DURING YOUR PROGRAM

The OIPS Website

The OIPS website has many resources regarding J-1 student responsibilities, remaining in status, on campus employment, Academic Training, program extension procedures and much more at: https://oips.gmu.edu/j-1-students/

Cultural Activities

Pursuing a degree program at George Mason University as an Exchange Visitor Student is also a commitment to engage in cultural activities in the U.S. and to share your culture with Americans. OIPS offers a variety of cultural programming for our international students. Read the OIPS weekly newsletter, follow us on social media, and check out our website to find out about events and programs. Additionally, your department will also host and share information about a variety of engagement opportunities. We encourage you and your family members to become involved in campus and local organizations and clubs. Mason 360 is a great resource to find campus groups and activities: https://mason360.gmu.edu/

If you need assistance to locate any additional resources, please do not hesitate to contact us. We also want to recognize and celebrate your participation in cultural events during your program. Please share with us any significant involvement or achievement. In the past, GMU J-1 students have been involved in student government, OIPS iCafes, the Green Machine Pep Band, GMU club sports, student research symposiums and campus award ceremonies to name a few.
SAFETY AND WELLBEING RESOURCES

Your safety and well-being during your program are among our highest priorities. We would like to share resources offered by GMU and inform you of the requirements for reporting health and safety incidents to OIPS.

You can also find a variety of resources also on the OIPS website and including important information on the J-1 Student website such as Compliance Deadlines for graduate and undergraduate students.

There may be situations not listed here where we can help you resolve an issue affecting your health or safety. Please reach out to us with any concern or question you have, and we will help you sort it out. We want you to understand how a situation may affect your status in the U.S. We also need to know how to reach you, and by law you must update your contact information (address and phone number) within 10 days of making any change. In addition, if your permanent address in your home country changes or your emergency contact person either here or abroad changes, please inform us right away.

COVID-19 Resources
• Coronavirus (COVID-19) Information is available on the OIPS website specifically for international students and Scholars.
• GMU’s Safe Return to Campus website has more detailed campus-wide information.

Emergency and Disaster Preparation Resources
• The Mason Ready website: GMU resources to assist in emergency and disaster preparedness.
• Active Threats Awareness and Prevention Video: Educate yourself about these important issues.
• Mason Alert Emergency Notification System: receive timely information about campus emergencies.
• National Weather Service Forecast Office: resources to monitor severe weather such as hurricanes, tornadoes, floods or wildfires in our area or when you travel.

Public Safety and Crime Prevention Resources
Educating yourself about the safety and security of your environment can be different in the U.S. than in your home country. There are several campus and local resources that will assist you in understanding crimes in the area and crime prevention. Remember, for an urgent or life-threatening emergency, call 911 for immediate assistance. While on-campus, you can report suspicious activity, crimes, and emergencies to Mason Police at 703-993-2810 (non-emergencies) or 9-1-1 (emergencies).

• GMU Department of Police and Public Safety: has information regarding awareness and responding to campus violence. They also have links to other area law enforcement websites.
• Crime and Fire log: GMU’s Department of Police and Public safety publishes this daily so that you can be informed about crimes that have occurred on campus. If you are traveling off-campus, other cities and counties provide a similar log often called a police blotter.
• Campus Assistance: If you ever feel unsafe walking across campus, call (703) 993-2810 and a police cadet can escort you to your destination.
• Rave Guardian Public Safety App: A free public safety app offering a variety of features including a virtual safety option and a panic call button to alert GMU Police. It’s free at iTunes and the Google Play store.
• Scam Awareness Website: OIPS created this website to educate the international community at Mason about how to protect themselves from losing money and identity theft.
GMU’s Student Support and Advocacy Center (SSAC) offers programming, consultations, and resources in the areas of interpersonal violence, financial wellbeing, personal wellness, and alcohol and drug use.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) provides important resources for students. In addition to having counselors on staff for guidance, they also have crisis hotlines available 24/7, a text line and an online chat. They offer online information and workshops focusing on a variety of issues such as stress reduction, suicide prevention and eating disorders. CAPS provides referrals for off-campus services. They also have a virtual outreach program. There are also weekly drop in meetings, “Coping with Coming Back” from more virtual pandemic interactions and a “Relax and Unwind” drop-in space.

Learning Services offers online academic coaching and virtual academic success workshops. They have an online library of video presentations on topics such as: Exam Strategies, Managing Academic Anxiety, Time Management, Notetaking and Studying among others. These workshops are a great resource for international students to also become better acquainted with American academic culture! They also have a guide on how to be a successful online learner.

The CAPS website has Multicultural Resources with links to Disability Services; LGBTQ+ Resources; and the Center for Culture, Equity and Empowerment. On the CCEE website, you can find information about reporting an incident that was motivated by bias (act of discrimination, harassment, intimidation, violence or a criminal offense that appears to be intentional and motivated by prejudice or bias).

GMU’s Student Health Services (SHS) provides high quality health care, counseling, health education, and prevention services to George Mason University students. The Fairfax location is open. Students need to first call 703-993-2831 to speak to a nurse before scheduling an appointment. For assistance when the clinic is closed, SHS has an after-hours nurse advice hotline at the same number (703-993-2831) and a list of after-hours urgent care centers (walk-in clinics) on their website. SHS has a webpage with information about their COVID Services. The Student Health Insurance office has details about the insurance coverage and fees for international students and links to insurance plan documents. In addition, there are tips on how to understand your insurance and health education resources.

GMU Student Rights and Responsibilities can be found in the university catalog. This section lists what steps can be taken for various concerns. It also includes information about the Student Conflict Resolution Center.

If you have been approved by OIPS to work, either on-campus or off-campus as part of Academic Training, it is important that you feel safe and are treated fairly in your work environment. The “Know your Rights” Pamphlet you received during your visa interview also details your rights as an exchange visitor. Remember to review approval requirements for on-campus and off-campus employment at the OIPS website or contact your J-1 student advisor: cbodziak@gmu.edu.

In certain cases, we are required to report incidents concerning the Health and Safety of Exchange Visitors to the US Department of State. Inform OIPS if you are involved in any of the following types of incidents:
• lost or stolen immigration documents (i.e., passport and visa)
• theft of intellectual property or violations of export controls
• serious illness or injury or if you are quarantined due to COVID-19
• incident involving litigation or the criminal justice system (incidents with police including arrests or court system)
• incidents involving sexual harassment, abuse or exploitation
• other incidents that involve health and safety (e.g. if you are involved in a natural disaster, civil unrest or outbreak of violence)
• if you become aware of a death of another exchange visitor or if another exchange visitor is missing.

There may be situations not listed where we can help you resolve an issue affecting your health or safety. Please reach out to us with any concern or question you have, and we will help you sort it out. We share the goal of the US Department of State that you have whatever assistance you need, and that you understand how a situation may affect your J-1 status. We also need to know how to reach you, and by law you must update your contact information (address and phone number) within 10 days of making any change. In addition, if your permanent address in your home country changes or your emergency contact person either here or abroad changes, please inform us right away.

Remember, for an urgent or life-threatening emergency, call 911 for immediate assistance. While on-campus, you can report suspicious activity, crimes, and emergencies to Mason Police at 703-993-2810 (non-emergencies) or 9-1-1 (emergencies). Remember to report to OIPS any emergencies INVOLVING AN EXCHANGE VISITOR’S HEALTH, SAFETY, AND WELFARE by calling (703) 993-2970 or emailing GMU’s Responsible Officer, Irina Chizhova at: ichizhov@gmu.edu

The Department of State also provides a 24 hour/7 days a week J-1 Visa Emergency Hotline toll-free number at 1-866-283-9090. The Hotline number is reserved for the use of current J-1 visa exchange visitor participants, or individuals calling on their behalf, in need of immediate contact with the State Department to address a matter concerning their health, safety or welfare. More information about the Department of State and J-1 program can be found at: https://j1visa.state.gov/ GMU students can also find links to many of these resources on the OIPS website.

We also need to know how to reach you. By law you must update your contact information (address and phone number) within 10 days of making a change. Also, if your permanent address in your home country changes or your emergency contact person either here or abroad changes, please inform us right away.
NEAR THE END OF YOUR PROGRAM

Program Completion

Your J-1 program end date on your current DS2019 is the last day of exams for your final semester taking classes at GMU while in the U.S. If you will finish your GMU classes in an earlier semester, or plan to complete any remaining classes online after returning home, please let us know. OIPS will need to shorten your program end date on your DS2019 form and your 30-day grace period will begin after your updated J-1 program end date.

Program Extension

If you will not complete your academic program by the current end date on your DS-2019 form, remember to apply for a program extension as soon as possible. More information is at: https://go.gmu.edu/pgm3

Post-Completion Academic Training

If you are interested in participating in post-completion Academic Training, please schedule an appointment with your J-1 advisor as soon as possible. More information about Academic Training can be found at: https://oips.gmu.edu/academic-training/
Some J1 exchange visitors are subject to Section 212(e) in the Immigration and Nationality Act; what is called the Two-Year Home Country Physical Presence Requirement, the Two-Year Residency Requirement or simply, the Two-Year Rule. It applies to exchange visitors in the following situations:

- If you receive any indirect or direct funding (including nominal travel grants) from your home government or a U.S. government agency at any point during your J-1 stay in the U.S.
- If your country of citizenship or permanent residency and field of work are identified by your home government as being in short supply and consequently listed on the U.S. State Department’s Exchange Visitor’s "Skills List." here: https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/visa-information-resources/skill-list-by-country.html

How to Fulfill?

To satisfy the home residence requirement, the individual subject to 212(e) must reside in the country of nationality or last legal permanent residence or be physically present in those locations for at least two years. It can also be an aggregate amount of two years if the person departed and returned to the country at various times. The two-year time period begins after the completion of the J1 program and the Exchange Visitor’s departure from the United States. Exchange Visitors who are subject may return to the U.S. while they are still subject in other non-immigrant categories including but not limited to F-1 student, J-1 Exchange Visitor, B visitor and the O-1 foreign national of extraordinary ability. Exchange Visitors that are subject:

- Cannot pursue a change of status in the U.S. (with certain exceptions).
- Apply for H, L, or K visa
- Cannot change status in U.S. to a legal permanent resident/immigrant visa.

Exchange Visitors interested in applying for a waiver of the Two Year Residence Requirement can find more information on the Department of State’s website: https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/study/exchange/waiver-of-the-exchange-visitor.htm
