Dear Exchange Visitor Student,

We are glad to welcome you to our Exchange Visitor Program at George Mason University! The Exchange Visitor Program, also known now as BridgeUSA, operates under the auspices of the U.S. Department of State’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. Its purpose is to provide you with an opportunity to participate in an educational and cultural program in the United States, return home to share your experiences, and encourage Americans to participate in educational and cultural programs abroad. Exchange Visitors enter the United States on a J visa. Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) regulates Foreign Relations. Part 62 regulates the Exchange Visitor Program. As a designated sponsor, GMU complies with regulations and compliance administration outlined in 22 CFR Part 62. As a participant, you are expected to comply with 22 CFR Part 62. As the Alternate Responsible Officer for GMU’s exchange visitor students, I am writing to provide information that you will need to prepare for your trip to the U.S.

For the Spring 2023 semester, GMU offers in-person, hybrid (partially in-person and partially online), and fully online classes. As the purpose of the exchange program is to facilitate in person exchanges, students should focus on registering for in person options whenever possible. Note that J-1 students may not have the majority of their courses be fully online. Please note that government guidance and GMU policies may change before the start of classes or during your program. Before March 2020, undergraduate students were not allowed to have a fully online class for their first 12 credits (9 credits for graduate students).

Please review the details about entry requirements to the U.S. on the Center for Disease Control’s website: www.cdc.gov and the OIPS website.

Orientation and Arrival at George Mason

The Office of International Programs and Services will host an in-person orientation program Wednesday, January 18th. More information is located here: https://oips.gmu.edu/attend-orientation/. The program starts in the morning, so you will need to arrive in Fairfax before then. If you are living on campus, please refer to the GEO Welcome e-mail and emails from the Office of Housing with more information about move-in options. J-1 students are allowed to arrive in the United States up to 30 days before their program start date. However, OIPS will be closed for our winter break from 5pm December 16th until January 2nd. Once you have arrived in the United States, you must have your SEVIS record validated through the J-1 online check-in process on the OIPS website. For the check-in process, you will also need to know your G #, your local address, U.S. phone number (if applicable) and emergency contact information. You should plan to complete the J-1 check-in form as soon as possible after arrival, but no later than January 26th.

I wish you safe travels to the United States!

Sincerely,

Christine A. Bodziak
International Advisor
cbodziak@gmu.edu
OBTAINING A U.S. VISA

Due to pandemic conditions, you should first confirm that the consulate in your country is open for routine visa processing or will accept emergency appointments for J-1 Exchange Visitor students with an upcoming program start date of January 18th.

Steps to Obtain a U.S. Visa

• Decide which consulate you plan to use. You can enter the city and country for U.S. consulates here: https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas.html to find out about approximate wait time to receive a visa appointment. Keep in mind that since the beginning of the pandemic, sometimes these wait times are not accurate. Read the consulate’s updates regarding visa processing on their website and follow the specific consulate on social media.

• Once you decide on the consulate, have on hand your passport and your Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor Status (DS-2019 Form)

• Have ready a digital photo that meets the requirements

• Find the website of the U.S. consulate in your country of residence here: http://www.usembassy.gov/

• Confirm if there are any additional documents or fees needed for this particular consulate

• Open a record in the Student Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) and pay the required SEVIS fee (901 fee) at https://fmjfee.com/i901fee/ Currently, the fee is $220
  o Note: Your SEVIS number is the number that begins with the letter “N” in the top right of your DS-2019 form.

• Print the SEVIS fee payment receipt

• Complete the Visa Application Form (DS-160). You will be applying as a J-1 nondegree university student. You will need to know the program dates and the GMU Program Number listed on your DS-2019 form

• Print the DS-160 confirmation page and payment receipt

• If you applied for a US visa before or if your country participates in the Visa Waiver Program, check to see if the in-person interview can be waived. If not, follow the directions on the consulate’s website to schedule your interview
• Pay the MRV/visa fee when you schedule your interview. Currently, the fee is $160. Please note, the visa and SEVIS fees are valid for a year, but are nonrefundable. Costs are subject to change.

Bring to your Visa Interview

- Your GMU acceptance letter
- Your OIPS welcome letter that confirms you will be taking some or all of your classes in person
- Proof of funding documents
- Printed copies of your DS-160 confirmation page, your DS-160/visa (MRV) fee receipt and your I-901 SEVIS fee receipt
- Your original DS-2019 Form
- Check the consulate’s website to confirm if any additional fees or documents are needed per the consulate’s requirements

Be prepared, honest, polite, and confident when presenting yourself to the consular officer during your visa interview. They may ask what you plan to study, why you selected Mason, and what your plans are after your program. You may be asked to show your acceptance letter from GEO, proof of financial support, proof of strong ties to your home country, etc. The consular officer will review whether you have sufficient funds to cover expenses and confirm your non-immigrant intent. Consular officers have the sole authority to either grant the visa or refuse the visa.

Please note that there is a chance refused applications may be flagged for administrative processing if the consular officer determined they did not have adequate information to verify if you are eligible for a visa. Please notify your J-1 advisor immediately if your application was flagged for administrative processing so we can advise you on next steps.
Currently, COVID vaccinations are required for entry to the U.S. More details and links to relevant guidance is on the OIPS website. Additional government guidance may also be issued before your arrival that can impact your travel.

As a J-1 student, you can enter the United States up to 30 days before the program start date indicated on your DS-2019 form. Also, you have a grace period that allows you to stay in the U.S. for up to 30 days from the program end date on your DS-2019 form before departing the U.S. Please pay attention to your housing move-in and move-out dates as they differ from J-1 student regulations regarding entry and departure.

Your visa permits you to travel to a U.S. Port of Entry. For most travelers, this is an international airport in the U.S. where you present yourself to the Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer after disembarking from your flight. You will present certain documents and may be asked to show supporting documents. Be prepared, honest, polite, and confident when presenting yourself to CBP officials. Place these important items in your carry-on luggage during your flight when you travel so that they are readily available:

- Your passport with valid visa
- Your original DS-2019 form
- Your admission letter
- Your OIPS welcome letter that confirms that you will be enrolled in hybrid or in-person classes
- A print out of your classes if available
- Your proof of funding documents
- Emergency contact information both in the United States (if applicable) and in your home country
- Proof of COVID vaccine per the CDC guidelines
- OIPS contact information
- The address where you will be staying

Present your passport, original DS-2019 form and entry visa to the immigration official at the U.S. port of entry. They may ask questions that will require you to show some of your supporting documents. If they have additional questions, they may direct you to a secondary inspection site.

Almost everything in the United States can be paid using a credit card, so you should have one with you when you arrive. You will use it for your living expenses and might need it in an emergency. Do not carry a large amount of cash with you.

Please follow the link to explore your transportation options from Virginia airports: http://transportation.gmu.edu/airportservices.html
ARRIVAL AND ORIENTATION

The Office of International Programs and Services will host a virtual and in-person orientation program for Spring 2023. More information is located here: https://oips.gmu.edu/attend-orientation/. GEO will also provide you with information regarding any separate GEO orientation activities. Orientation begins early on January 18th, so you will need to arrive before then.

Once you have arrived in the United States, OIPS will validate your SEVIS record to confirm that you have arrived and started your program. In order for us to do so, each J-1 student must complete the J-1 online check-in process on the OIPS website. For the check-in process, you will need to know your G#, your local address, U.S. phone number (if applicable) and emergency contact information. You should plan to complete the J-1 check-in form as soon as possible after arrival, but no later than January 26th. You can only complete the check-in form AFTER arriving in the U.S. as you need to upload your most recent I-94 record. Please follow this link to start the check-in form:

https://oips.gmu.edu/international-student-check-in-form-for-j-1-students/

What is an I-94 Record?

The I-94 record is the “Arrival/Departure Record” issued by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) whenever you enter the United States. This record confirms that you have been legally admitted to the U.S. in a specific visa status, and for a specific duration of time. For F and J visa holders the amount of time is indicated by the notation “D/S” which means you can be in the U.S. for the Duration of Status of your student program. The CBP officers will enter the I-94 data into an on-line registration system using your passport and visa stamp. You will be able to access an electronic version of the I-94 record by visiting: https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/I94/#/home This record can be printed when applying for immigration benefits, such as a driver’s license or a Social Security Number (SSN).
You can find additional information about on campus housing options at housing.gmu.edu. Please review floor plans and understand that on campus housing may require a meal plan and sharing a bedroom.

You can read some tips from students about on campus housing on the OIPS website at: https://oips.gmu.edu/housing

If you decide to live off-campus for the Spring 2023 semester, we recommend working with Contemporary Student Services (CSS) for your off-campus housing search: https://contemporary.gmu.edu

Read the Renter Resources and Renter Education sections of their website. Housing scams occur, so please read over the CSS and OIPS resources and information about renting in Fairfax to protect yourself. You can also find a variety of tips on the OIPS website at: https://oips.gmu.edu/offcampus/

Budgeting for Living Expenses

The cost of living in the metro Washington, DC area is one of the highest in the United States. Thus, it is very important that you research the cost of housing and other living expenses before you travel to the U.S. The minimum funding amounts required to participate on the exchange are only minimum funding requirements not actual costs. Depending on your lifestyle choices, you may need to budget for additional costs. Please pay particular attention on how to avoid housing scams: https://oips.gmu.edu/scams/
HEALTH INSURANCE

Exchange Visitors and their dependents must maintain health insurance for the entire period of J status in the United States. U.S. regulations require the following:

1. Medical benefits of at least $100,000 U.S. per accident or illness
2. Repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,000 U.S.
3. Expenses associated with medical evacuation of the Exchange Visitor to his or her home country in the amount of $50,000 U.S.
4. A deductible not to exceed $500 per accident or illness

The George Mason University Health Insurance plan is offered by Aetna Student Health. It meets and exceeds the requirements. Along with your DS-2019, you will receive an International Student Welcome letter from the Student Health Insurance office explaining that international students are automatically enrolled in the health plan and the international student premium is due by the first day of classes. Per regulation 22 CFR 62.14(i) a willful failure to maintain health insurance will result in termination from the exchange program. Sponsored students who receive scholarships that cover the insurance fees must work with the Third Party Billing Office in Students Accounts to ensure they have a copy of your sponsorship letter. Sponsored students must follow up with their government sponsor to confirm that invoices are received and are in process.

You can find more information about the plan and how to access your health insurance benefits at: https://shs.gmu.edu/insurance/resources/

If you have a sponsor that pays your health insurance fee and they do not submit payment in a timely manner, you may be required to pay the fee and then request a re-imbursement when the credit appears on your account.

THE COST OF U.S. HEALTH CARE

Your health insurance may not cover the full cost of your doctor’s visit, hospitalization or medication. Review the rules related to your plan to understand fully what is covered. Here are some of the terms defined:

Premium

The amount you pay to your insurance company for your insurance policy. This is paid on a monthly or a yearly basis, depending on your insurance plan.

Co-Pay

The co-pay or co-payment, is the amount you are expected to pay directly to the healthcare provider at the time you receive medical treatment. This is usually a small amount and varies depending on your insurance.
Deductible

The deductible is a part of the medical bill that you are expected to pay in addition to the co-pay. Insurance plans usually specify the amount of a medical bill they cover and the amount you must pay. The deductible is usually described as a flat amount or as a percentage, depending upon the policy. Generally high premiums have a lower deductible while lower premiums have a high deductible.

In many cases, the doctor’s office or hospital where you seek treatment may not bill your insurance directly. They may require you to pay them directly and for you to be reimbursed by your health insurance company.

Information on the Possible Applicability of the Affordable Care Act

The general rules regarding applicability of the individual mandate of the ACA and availability of ACA-compliant coverage also apply to J nonimmigrants, but that the minimum levels and types of coverage are still required as a condition of J-1 or J-2 status, even if those nonimmigrants are additionally subject to the ACA’s individual mandate. For more information please visit: https://shs.gmu.edu/insurance/resources/
DURING YOUR PROGRAM

Full-time Program Participation

GEO students are required to participate in their program by attending a full-time schedule of courses. Most students take classes at GMU’s main campus in Fairfax. If you enroll in a class at another GMU campus, please let OIPS know so we can add that location to your site of activity in SEVIS.

The OIPS Website

The OIPS website has many resources regarding J-1 student responsibilities, remaining in status, employment, program extension procedures and much more at: https://oips.gmu.edu/j-1-students/

Although more details are covered in the orientation program, if you have any questions about J-1 compliance issues before arriving, please reach out.

Cultural Activities

Pursuing a degree program at George Mason University as an Exchange Visitor Student is also a commitment to engage in cultural activities in the U.S. and share your culture with Americans. OIPS offers a variety of cultural programming for our international students. Read the OIPS weekly newsletter, follow us on social media, and check out our website to find out about events and programs. Additionally, GEO will also share information about a variety of engagement opportunities. We encourage you to become involved in campus and local organizations and clubs. SAFETY AND WELLBEING RESOURCES

Your safety and well-being during your program are among our highest priorities. We would like to share resources offered by GMU and inform you of the requirements for reporting health and safety incidents to OIPS.

You can also find a variety of resources also on the OIPS website and including important information on the J-1 Student website such as Compliance Deadlines for graduate and undergraduate students.

There may be situations not listed here where we can help you resolve an issue affecting your health or safety. Please reach out to us with any concern or question you have, and we will help you sort it out and direct you to the appropriate resources. In addition, we want you to understand how a situation may affect your status in the U.S.

We also need to know how to reach you, and by law you must update your contact information (address and phone number) within 10 days of making any change. If you move to an on-campus address, the Housing office will update your address. If you move off-campus for the first time or any subsequent times, you are responsible for updating your address in Patriot Web. In addition, if your permanent address in your home country changes or your emergency contact person either here or abroad changes, please inform us right away.

The “Know your Rights” Pamphlet you received during your visa interview also details your rights as an exchange visitor. Please remember to review approval requirements for on-campus and off-campus employment at the OIPS website or email your J-1 student advisor at cbodziak@gmu.edu.
Reporting Important Incidents to OIPS

In certain cases, we are required to report incidents concerning the Health and Safety of Exchange Visitors. These reports are submitted directly to the US Department of State. Please inform us if you are involved in any of the following types of incidents:

- lost or stolen immigration documents (i.e., passport and visa)
- theft of intellectual property or violations of export controls
- serious illness or injury
- incident involving litigation or the criminal justice system (incidents with police including arrests or the court system)
- incidents involving sexual harassment, abuse or exploitation
- other incidents that involve health and safety (e.g. if you are involved in a natural disaster, civil unrest or outbreak of violence)

Remember, for an urgent or life-threatening emergency, call 911 for immediate assistance. While on-campus, you can report suspicious activity, crimes, and emergencies to Mason Police at 703-993-2810 (non-emergencies) or 9-1-1 (emergencies). More information about the Department of State and J-1 program can be found at: https://j1visa.state.gov/ GMU students can also find links to many of these resources on the OIPS website.
NEAR THE END OF YOUR PROGRAM

Program Completion

Your J-1 program end date on your current DS2019 is the last day of exams for that semester. You have a 30-day grace after your own last exam (or program end date) before leaving the U.S. Although you are allowed to remain in the U.S during your grace period, you cannot work or take classes. In addition, you will need to follow the housing rules for move-out. Once you depart the U.S. after your last exam, you also end the corresponding grace period.

Post-Completion Academic Training

If you are interested in participating in post-completion Academic Training, please schedule an appointment with your J-1 advisor as soon as possible. Your search should begin early. More information about Academic Training can be found at: https://oips.gmu.edu/academic-training/
THE TWO-YEAR RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

Some J1 exchange visitors are subject to Section 212(e) in the Immigration and Nationality Act; what is called the Two-Year Home Country Physical Presence Requirement, the Two-Year Residency Requirement or simply, the Two-Year Rule. It applies to exchange visitors in the following situations:

- If you receive any indirect or direct funding (including nominal travel grants) from your home government or a U.S. government agency at any point during your J-1 stay in the U.S.
- If your country of citizenship or permanent residency and field of work are identified by your home government as being in short supply and consequently listed on the U.S. State Department’s Exchange Visitor’s "Skills List." here: https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/visa-information-resources/skill-list-by-country.html

How to Fulfill?

To satisfy the home residence requirement, the individual subject to 212(e) must reside in the country of nationality or last legal permanent residence or be physically present in those locations for at least two years. It can also be an aggregate amount of two years if the person departed and returned to the country at various times. The two-year time period begins after the completion of the J1 program and the Exchange Visitor’s departure from the United States. Exchange Visitors who are subject may return to the U.S. while they are still subject in other non-immigrant categories including but not limited to F-1 student, J-1 Exchange Visitor, B visitor and the O-1 foreign national of extraordinary ability. Exchange Visitors that are subject:

- Cannot pursue a change of status in the U.S. (with certain exceptions).
- Apply for H, L, or K visa
- Cannot change status in U.S. to a legal permanent resident/immigrant visa.

Exchange Visitors interested in applying for a waiver of the Two Year Residence Requirement can find more information on the Department of State’s website: https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/study/exchange/waiver-of-the-exchange-visitor.htm
